Softball started in Spokane in 1934. History compiled by former Spokane ASA Commissioner John Tuft does not list a UIC from the 1930s into the 1950s, and it is spotty until the mid-1970s. It is possible that Spokane ASA presidents and/or commissioners also had charge of the umpire program through those years.

- Spokane softball umpires, then called Spokane Officials Association, went on strike against ASA in 1985. ASA Commissioner Clarence Buckenberger formed another umpires association, called Spokane Metro Softball Umpires Association. In 1985, F. Bruce Campbell remained UIC of SOA and Jerry McElroy was the UIC of SMSUA, the ASA group. In the spring of 1986 the two groups were combined, forming Spokane Softball Umpires Association, with F. Bruce Campbell the ASA UIC.*
